

Lilli

Prepare to be entertained!

Lillian Rodrigues-Pang is dramatic, involved and passionate storyteller. Lillian's cultural and discovery tales are, without fail, bound to take your mind and imagination to places they have never been before. You will be riveted by folklore from the Andes, to Zimbabwe. Themes relating to culture, mythology, caring for oneself and each other, acceptance and sheer floating joy are interwoven into her performance.

Lillian was born to a Native American Indian mother (Pipil Indian) and Portuguese father. Lillian believes that stories that make the person, the family, the community. Stories weave their threads into all aspects of our lives. Let Lillian's passion for story and sheer performance/workshop capabilities reignite your story soul.

What others say...

"A very therapeutic, interesting and helpful experience. Stories were told with energy and enthusiasm. Excellent presentation and interesting way of introducing stories..." Chris – Social worker

"I love the way you tell stories. Your facial expression kept me riveted and you inspire me to share stories with my own family." Helen – Mother's group attendee

"I could easily sit through many more hours of Lilli's amazing presentation..." Khaled – Assistant Principal

Lillian Rodrigues-Pang
Storyteller Writer Percussionist

The Story Line
ABN 49118398128

0417 671 442

lilli@thestoryline.com.au
www.thestoryline.com.au